WRIGHT'S EVENTFUL CAREER HAS SENSATIONAL ENDING

Dies Suddenly an Hour After Being Sentenced to Seven Years' Servitude For Fraud.

Suicide Is Hinted at-Inquest Will Be Held Thursday-Startling Tragedy Stirs All London.

ONDON, Jan. 26.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon Whitaker Wright was sentenced to seven years penal servitude. At 4 o'clock he lay dead on the floor of a small room in the law courts. Whether he took his own life by poison or whether death in its natural course robbed the law of its fulfillment, will not be known until a post mortem examination is held.

Severe Arraignment of Judge.

The career of this man, who was known on three continents for his stuppendous financial operations, closed in a startling tragedy. Even in his life, which, with his rise from poverty to enormous wealth, was full of dramatic incidents, there was nothing that could compare with the manner of his death. All London tonight is thrilled with the news of it. No such human tragedy has been enacted in England for many a year.

Until nearly 8 o'clock tonight the body of the man who formerly had controlled many of the world's markets, and who had been courted by royalty, remained upon the floor of the room where he fell, for, as a convicted felon, Wright's person had become the property of the crown.

Severe Arraignment of Judge.

"Whitaker Wright." said Justice Biglam, "in my oplinion the jury could not on the vidence, arrive at any other count of the further as we have the first purple of the service at any other count of the act of parliament, upon which you have been found gulity, and I can prove by the editorial pages of nearly all of our leading daily papers, that I have any option save to visit you with the most severe penalty which the act permits, and that is that you go into the country of the world's markets, and who had been courted by royalty, remained upon the floor of the room where he fell, for, as a convicted felon, Wright's person had become the property of the crown.

The home office finally gave permission for its removal, and the body was given over to the jurisdiction of the coroner. It now lies at Westminster mortuary, where almost all the corpses coroner. Will J: Dayic was arrested in bed at his home. He was allowed to eat breakfast. Meanwhile his attorney arrived and the party left for the business center.

Some time after the arrest of Manager Dayis, Mayor Harrison presented himself at Coroner Traeger's office. The mayor was accompanied by his brother and cousin and by former Mayor Hempstead Washburne. The coroner greeted the mayor and party and the party then went to Judge Walker's court, where bonds of $15,000 were furnished. The mayor then left for his office in the city hall.
